SHARING OF INSURANCE INFORMATION

Insurers share information with each other regarding policies and claims with a view to prevent fraudulent claims and to obtain material information regarding assessment of risks proposed for insurance. By reducing the incidents of fraud and assessing risks fairly, future premium increases may be limited. This is done in the public interest of all current and potential policy holders. The sharing of information includes, but is not limited to information sharing via the information Data Sharing System operated by TransUnion ITC on behalf of the South African Insurance Association. By the insurer accepting or renewing this insurance, you or any other person that is represented herein, gives consent to the said information being disclosed to any other insurance company or its agents.

You also similarly give consent to the sharing of information in regard to past insurance policies and claims that you have made. You also acknowledge that information by yourself or your representative may be verified against any legally recognised sources or databases.

By insuring or renewing your insurance, you hereby not only consent to such information sharing but also waive any rights of confidentiality with regard to underwriting or claim information that you have provided or that has been provided by another person on your behalf.

In the event of a claim, the information you have supplied with your application together with the information you supply in relation to the claim, will be included on the system and made available to other insurer's participating in the Data Sharing System.

SECTION 21 OF THE GENERAL CODE OF CONDUCT

Section 21 of the General Code of Conduct states that no provider may request or induce in any manner a client waive any right or benefit conferred on the client by, or in terms of, any provisions of this code, or recognise, accept or act on any such waiver by the client and such waiver is null of void.
